USBC 2024 WOMEN'S CHAMPIONSHIPS SHIFTS TO RENO WITH CINCINNATI HOSTING IN 2027

The United States Bowling Congress announced a schedule change for the USBC Women's Championships. The 2024 Women's Championships will shift from Cincinnati's Western Bowl to the National Bowling Stadium in Reno, Nevada. Cincinnati now is scheduled to host the event in 2027 at Western Bowl. Said Strike and Spare Family Entertainment Centers Operations Manager Ron Schmittou: "In order to accommodate our existing business, Hoinke Tournament and the renovation schedule, the best option was for Western Bowl to shift hosting the USBC Women's Championships to 2027. This change will allow us to provide the best possible venue experience for the Women's Championships and our current customers." The 2024 Women's Championships will take place at the NBS. The venue underwent a $4.5 million renovation leading up to the 2021 event and will be an opportunity for many bowlers to experience the recently renovated facility for the first time. Registration for the 2024 Women's Championships will open in April 2023.

REGISTRATION ON HORIZON FOR USBC 2024 OPEN CHAMPIONSHIPS

Popular youth coach Lorenzo "Zone" Holland unexpectedly died on January 28, shortly after working the third round of the Youth Invitational Tournament at his home center, Lord Calvert Bowl. The 2021 Hall of Fame inductee was 66.

League officers must do their jobs throughout the season

Greetings, Nation's Capital Area Association bowlers!

We are more than halfway through the league season. Presidents and Treasurers, the first league audit should be completed. Secretaries, this is an excellent time to verify that your league's membership dues were paid and are current for all league bowlers.

The local association is here for you when you need us. What do we do?

➤ Foster communication between bowlers, center management, and the local association.

➤ Attend league meetings when invited.

➤ Assist league officers in solving problems during the bowling season.

➤ Inform leagues of conflicts between their league rules and the USBC Playing Rules book.

➤ Be an information source on the obligations, benefits, and activities of the local association.

➤ Collects donations for BVL in the bowling centers.

➤ Present awards as requested by league officers.

➤ Distribute association activity information when required.

The 17th Annual Membership Meeting is set for Sunday, February 19, 2023 beginning at 11 a.m. in the NCAUSBCA Office Building (2nd floor), 9315 Largo Drive West, Largo, Md. Come to the meeting to understand what we do, vote, get involved, and meet fellow bowlers.

Our local youth are busy bowling: The 53rd Annual Youth Invitational Scratch Singles Tournament recently concluded at Bowl America Shirley, and a 600 Club Winter Doubles event took place at The Lanes Fort Meade. Meanwhile, the 59th Annual Youth Championship Tournament is scheduled for Bowl America Gaithersburg on February 25-26 and March 4-5.

I look forward to seeing you. If you have questions or want to talk, I may be contacted at bowlerinfo@gmail.com.

The NCAUSBCA Women's and Open Championships tournaments will be conducted during the months of March and April 2023, respectively. Entries for the Open can be completed online this time around by clicking here.

Tournament season has been going pretty well so far judging by the turnout for the Senior and Mixed events held earlier this season, so let's all get together and fill the lanes for these two tournaments.

If you just want to bowl and don't have a team or a doubles partner, give us a call, and we will find a great group of bowlers to fill out your team.

Secretaries: We are processing awards and delivering to your center; please continue to use the most up-to-date forms.

If you use CDE software to process your league, you will need to check the local awards tab to make sure you have the current award requirements. As a reminder, you can add our bonus awards under the "other" awards tab.

We have been able to purchase more of the 175 and 200 game awards, so please get your forms in to us.

Eder, Starr, Trentler 2023 recipients of Ted Gruszkowski Jr. Youth Star Award

There were three recipients this year of the prestigious NCAUSBCA Ted Gruszkowski Jr. Youth Star Award, which is named in honor of the late association Hall of Fame member who was a strong supporter of area youth bowling. The announcement of the 2023 winners took place January 21 at Crofton Bowling Centre prior to the opening round of the NCAUSBCA Youth 53rd Annual Invitational Scratch Singles Tournament.

The award winners, honored for bowling achievement and/or service to youth bowling, each were presented with a plaque (by Invitational Manager Robin Leonard) and $200 in scholarship funds, which will be administered through the USBC SMART program. In addition, the three names appear on a second plaque of honorees, which now total 34.

MAX EDER • Springfield, Virginia

Max Eder is a senior who soon will graduate from Lake Braddock Secondary School with a 3.8 GPA and will attend Muskingum University this fall to bowl with the Fighting Muskies. He is an incredible person who has dramatically improved as a bowler and has come an incredibly long way.

Bowling is a true passion for Max, who started around three years ago in a fun youth league, got some good advice and met some caring people who saw his potential and thus moved to a more competitive elite league where he has excelled ever since. He received better coaching from Bryant Mehio and now works with Will Clark and bowls on Sport shots several times a week.

With the support of his parents, coaches, and extended bowling family, Max improved 20 pins this past year to reach a 200 average. He received five offers to bowl on college teams, which undoubtedly came about due to his hard work, drive to succeed, and amazing attitude, along with his always being a supportive teammate.

This season, Max won the Storm Mid-Atlantic Junior Bowlers Tour Tournament of Champions as well as a divisional scratch title in the most recent Vern Burke Scholarship Tournament.

Some of his other accomplishments include top finishes in the Storm Mid Atlantic Junior Bowlers Doubles Tournament, the Monday Mixed Triples league, and his youth league at Bowl America Burke, where he had high average and most improved average in addition to three times being named the center's Youth of the Month. There also were second-, third-, and fourth-place finishes in Storm Mid-Atlantic Junior Bowlers competition, along with placing fourth in the NCAUSBCA Youth Championship Tournament (twice) and the 7th Annual Paul Goodwin Youth/Adult Scholarship Bowling Tournament.

In 2022, Max was a C Division finalist in the NCAUSBCA Youth Invitational Scratch Singles Tournament. He also qualified for Junior Gold at the USBC Invitionals (Round 2) and for the association's 600 Club Tournament of Champions.

Max, a member of the National Honor Society, plans to study education in college and hopes to work with elementary school students.

He volunteers regularly to assist elderly neighbors with just about anything for which strong hands are needed. Max:

- Does yard work for ailing neighbors and doesn't take any money (although he sometimes accepts cookies).
- Regularly participates in park cleanups at Lake Accotink and in the neighborhood.
- Collects and delivers recyclables in an effort to help the environment.
- Bags food at Food for Others.

Whether selflessly helping others or seeking ways to improve his bowling, Max Eder clearly has demonstrated characteristics that merit him the NCAUSBCA Ted Gruszkowski Jr. Youth Star Award.

KAYLA STARR • Crofton, Maryland

Before moving to The Lanes Fort Meade, Kayla Starr already had made a name for herself in the youth world in the Baltimore area. In 2015, she started bowling the Preps league at Fort Meade and entered a world of coaching excellence to help with her game. Kayla has won scholarships in the Pepsi Championships in the U12 and U15

Girls divisions, winning the U15 Girls title in 2021 and 2022.

Kayla bowls all over the United States in Storm Youth Championships (SYC) events, in which she holds several titles, the PBA Jr. events, and in the Storm Mid-Atlantic Jr Bowlers Tour as well as other team and singles events.

In 2021, Kayla bowled in the Junior Gold Championships in Indianapolis, where she made it to the advancers round, then advanced to the TV finals where she came in second place, and she also was named to the Team USA Developmental squad. She also made it to the JBA Jr. TV finals on FOX where she competed against Jillian Martin for the title. Kayla also claimed a PBA Junior Doubles title.

But 2022 has been Kayla's biggest year so far. Beginning in February, where she graced the cover of Bowlers Journal International and was

Prize fund, contribution records continue at NCAUSBCA Mixed Tournament in Support of BVL

NCAUSBCA's 12th Annual Mixed Tournament in Support of BVL, which took place December 3-4, 10-11, and 17-18, set records for the fourth consecutive year for teams (130, previous high 94) and doubles (269, previous high 201) and had a record prize fund of $38,314 — $7,800 more than the previous high. In addition, the tournament raised a record $21,500 (previous high $15,000) for the NCAUSBCA 2022-2023 contribution to BVL.

The tournament, held each December at Bowl America Shirley, plans to re-oil the lanes between the first and second squads next year, as several early squads sold out over two weeks before the closing date. I intend to limit singles/doubles squads to a maximum of six bowlers per pair of lanes.

Chris Garvey of Vienna, Va., bowled the high series of 794 (team), while Paul Rumbaugh of Stafford, Va., and Dale Lion of Fairfax, Va., each bowled a 296 game, both in the doubles event to share high game honors. There were 11 series of 750 or better, seven games of 280 or better, and 14 games of 279.

Special thanks go to the tournament's presenting sponsor, the Sports Plus / Carmen Don Pro Shop, as well as event sponsors Rowl Rite Bowling, FXBG Photobooth, Sysnetic Data Systems LLC, Andrea Dale, and Tom Dale.

This season, 10 individuals qualified as squad organizers for bringing four or more teams: Ron Foster, Ronald Folks, Joan Austin, Eugenia McDonald, Cynthia Lomax, Mabel Sharp, C. Bruce Harkless, Sonya Meredith, Debbie Schultz, and Cristi Hazel.

ANDRU BLANEY

2023 JUNIOR TEAM USA MEMBER

Based on his performance last summer at the 2022 Junior Gold Championships in Grand Rapids, Mich., Andru Blaney earned a spot on Junior Team USA for 2023. Days after competing in the NCAUSBCA Youth 53rd Annual Invitational Scratch Singles Tournament, Andru responded to questions posed by editor Bob Cosgrove.

How does making Junior Team USA rank among your many accomplishments in bowling? What are three of your other highly related bowling accomplishments?

Making Junior Team USA is my biggest accomplishment; it is number one on my list. Making match play in Junior Gold 2022, National finalist PBA Jr., and winning Storm Youth Championship Coastal Classic in October 2022.

What things—benefits—do you want to get out of being a Junior Team USA member?

I look forward to being a Junior Team USA member because it will provide me the knowledge to grow my game. I will receive training from some of the best bowling athletes/coaches in the USA. I will be provided the opportunity to represent my country anytime on the lanes.

What's your current situation regarding college? What role did bowling play in any college decisions?

I am committed to attend Mount Mercy University (in Cedar Rapids, Iowa) in Fall 2023. Bowling was a major factor when I decided which college to attend. However, I also made sure that the college offered the programs (finance or accounting) that I am planning to major in.

Who are your current bowling coaches/advisors? What roles have they played in making you the bowler you are today?

Coach Mike Sinek; my dad is a coach; Jim Lewis, my mentor. I have worked with many other bowling coaches as well, throughout my time, and they have helped shape me into the bowler and person I am today.

Do you model your physical game after any pro bowlers? If so, which ones?

Throughout the years, I have modeled my physical game to multiple pro bowlers, such as Jason Belmonte and Kyle Troup.

Have you always been a two-handed bowler?

Yes.

What are the benefits for you of being a two-handed bowler? Any disadvantages?

I would say the benefits of being a two-handed bowler is the rev rate that I have. It is much higher than your average bowler. I would say a disadvantage is learning balance as a two-handed bowler.

What five bowlers would you want to see on a PBA telecast?

Jason Belmonte, Kyle Troup, Jesper Svensson, EJ Tackett, and Chris Via.

signed to Storm's Staff through their Evolution program. In March, Coolwick signed her to their staff, and she has her own line of Coolwick designed jerseys. In July, at the Junior Gold Championships in Michigan, she once again made it to the Advancers round and fell just short of the TV show. While still competing throughout the year in numerous SYC, JBA Jr., and Team USA practices in Arlington, Texas and at other team and singles events, Kayla has maintained a 3.93 GPA in her Crofton High School courses.

Kayla currently bowls in the Saturday Morning Youth league at Crofton where she holds high average for the girls with a 208. She also is committed to bowling Monday evenings in the Ft. Meade Youth Sports Shot league. Her high game is a 300, and her high series is a 757.

In early December, Kayla announced her signing with the University of Nebraska to bowl on their women's team, starting in the fall of 2024.

Kayla is committed to the sport of bowling and often can be found at either Crofton Bowling Centre or The Lanes Fort Meade working on her game.

Kayla Starr exemplifies the commitment, discipline, and passion for which the NCAUSBCA Ted Gruszkowski Jr. Youth Star Award stands.

BLANEY, from page 23

What are your favorite subjects in school?

Math and gym.

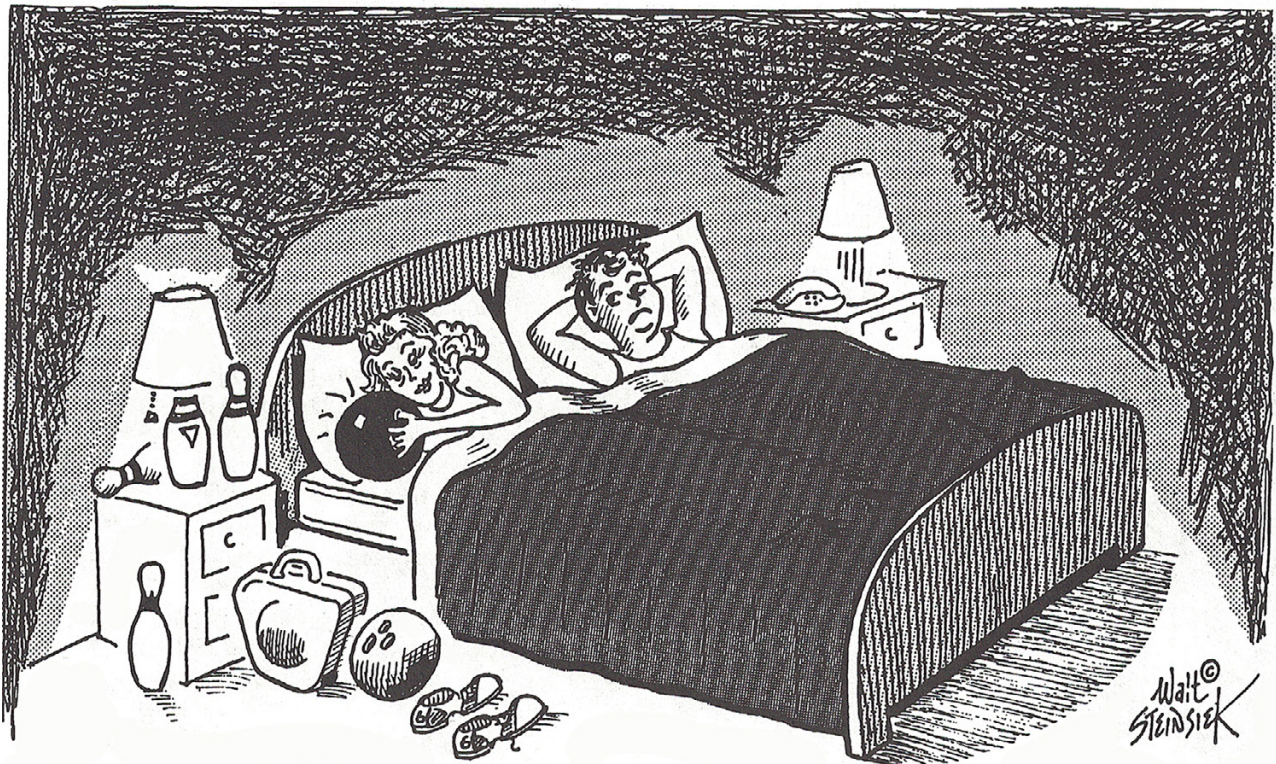

If somehow you could no longer bowl (perhaps due to injury, etc.) or no longer wanted to bowl, what would be your focus regarding a career choice?

Finance or accounting.

Within the NCAUSBCA, which three of your competitors do you respect the most?

There are actually more than three that I respect very much. However, out of respect to them, I don't want to only name three. I have respected my competitors over the years and appreciate the competition they have given me. They, too, have helped make me the bowler I am today.
